Voters Pass Bond Issue; Legislators to Apportion Funds

Missouri voters, in a light but convincing ballot on January 24, gave approval for the issuance of $125 million dollars in bonds by the state for the purpose of securing funds for building, remodeling, and repairing buildings and utilities in educational, eleemosynary, and institutional institutions.

Maryville voters were in a 6 to 1 ratio in favor of the proposition.

The agencies have requested more than $125 million for their construction and repair programs, which will be up to the state legislature to apportion the $75 million approved by the voters. Governor M. Donnelly is expected to call the state governing body into special session some time this month.

Preceding the election, the College had requested a total of $4,180,000 for a program of building and repairs including two new dormitories, a science and fine arts building, a physical education classroom building, a completely remodelled heating system, and various other repairs.

No additional tax of any kind is needed to finance the bonds. Retirement of the bonds and interest charges would be paid out of the present state income tax revenue under the proposal. It has been estimated that interest and retirement over a 25-year period would amount to about $4,500,000 annually.

Student Loan Fund Benefit Ball Feature 'Gay Nineties' Theme

The "Gay Nineties Ball" will be one of the highlights of this year's social life. The dance will be held in the Student Union on Friday, February 21, from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. This event is to be organized by the Veterans Club and is being given as a benefit for the Student Loan Fund.

Walter Wa-Ho Walters and "The Band That Mother Never Saw" is demonstrating its musical talents. The entertainment is confidential at the moment, but it has been rumored that two faculty members will be making guest appearances on the program.

In keeping with the spirit of the "Gay Nineties" students are requested to wear fashionable clothing contemporary to this era. Such wardrobes would be: those long-waisted, knee length dresses, plus accessories, and the men would look quite stylish in striped pants, derbys or straw hats, and plaid shirts. The costume is not compulsory, but a prize of $5 will be given to the sharpest looking costume. A door prize of $5 will also be given to the person who has the winning ticket.

Admission is $1 per couple or 75¢ single; all proceeds will be turned over to the Student Loan Fund.

TOWER Bulletin

Wednesday, February 15, from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. a voting booth on the main floor of the Ad building will be open to allow students to select the 1956 TOWER Queen.

The TOWER Staff, with the support of the Student Senate, is asking that there be no formal campaigning prior to the election. That is to say, "No posters, pictures, or distribution of favors, please." This, of course, cannot restrict any organization from supporting a single representative, or from encouraging friends to vote for a particular person. The hope is that this procedure will result in a fair, unbiased selection of a popular and personable queen.

There is to be only one write-in ballot. The names of the five girls drawing the most nominations will be announced immediately, and the candidate receiving the most numerical support will be presented during the evening of the TOWER dance on February 25.

Teachers' Credit Union Serves Northwest Area

"To be, or not to be; that is the question." The famous soliloquy from Shakespeare's tragic play HAMLET will again be heard, as spoken by Bob Wilson who will portray Hamlet in the performance to be given at the College auditorium on Monday March 19, at 9 o'clock.

In observance of the Golden Anniversary of the College, HAMLET will also be presented for the high school students Monday, March 19, at 2 in the afternoon, and Tuesday, March 20, at an evening performance for the public, beginning at 8 p.m.

Barbara Ann Julius, Ophelia; Jesse Masters, Reynaldo; Gary Chilcott, Rosencrantz; Wilmer Calvin, Guildenstern; Bill Arloff, Player King; Marylyn La Mar, Player Queen; Hiram Lilley, Player Villian; Bud Brownfield, Player Prologue; Dan Hochstein, Fortinbras; Don McCartney, Norwegian Captain; Elbert Blair, Osric.

Jeannie Goodson, Marjorie Canon, Mrs. Ruby Wispe, Ron Maurice, and Bill Shultz are Lords, Ladies, Soldiers and Attendants.

Since 1933, the Northwest Missouri Teachers' Credit Union has been in operation in this vicinity, lending money, at interest, to people in the teaching profession.

Governed by the Missouri State Credit Union Association, loans ranging from a few dollars to $1,600, have been made for the furtherance of education, for vacations, furniture, autos, and various other purposes. At the present $17,000 is lent out. Money for loans is obtained from those who deposit funds in the Union.

Officials are Mr. F. L. Skalath, president; Mr. Everett Brown, vice-president; Dr. Sterling Surrey, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Evelyn Severson, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Before loans are granted, approval must first be made by the credit committee. This committee is composed of Miss Chloe Millikan, Miss Mattie Dykes, Mr. R. T. Wright, Miss Anna Goruch, and Miss Marie Bluel.

Supervisory committee members are Mr. Leon Miller, Miss Ruth Miller, and Mr. Claude Pierpoint.

The Credit Union Office is in Room 101, Administration building.

Religious Emphasis Week assembly—9 a.m., Wednesday, in auditorium.

Enrollment

Enrollment at the College has continued on its record-breaking level as the second semester of the Golden Anniversary year gets under way.

Latest figures from the office of Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, list the number of students at 1,235. This represents an increase of 25 per cent over the 984 enrolled for the spring semester last year.

As the Missourian goes to press, enrollment of late afternoon and Saturday students has yet to be completed. When enrollment of these students is finished the grand total is expected to show only a slight drop from the 1,338 of last fall.

Enrollment last semester showed a 30 per cent increase over the previous year.

Home Ec Majors Teach In Off-Campus Classes

Four college students majoring in home economics started teaching off campus on January 30 for four weeks.

Jean Ann Feurt and Mrs. Doris Staples Evans are at Central, St. Joseph, with Mrs. Frances Lemon, instructor.

Martha Newman and Mrs. Mabel Cole are at Savannah with Miss Beulah Campbell, instructor.

These students are living in the towns to which they were assigned and are under the supervision of the regular instructor.

Movie Review

Razor's Edge

Movie-going students are in for a treat if they plan to attend the showing of "The Razor's Edge" in the Bearcats' Den on Friday, February 10, at 7:15 p.m. This picture is another in the series sponsored by the Student Union Board.

Tyrone Power, Gene Tierney, Herbert Marshall, Anne Baxter, and Clifton Webb star in this movie version of Somerset Maugham's powerful story of a young man's quest for spiritual peace among the anxieties and frustrations of a modern world. The action takes place against a background of the busy cities of Chicago and Paris and against the frightening heights of the Himalaya Mountains.

Rickenbrode Receives M Club Honor

Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode, the former business manager of the College and now secretary to the Board of Regents, received at half-time in Saturday's game with Kirksville the M Club's highest honor. He is shown with his wife as Lettermen's Club members present to him a blanket which sports a letter "M" with four bars and a star. During his forty-nine years with the College Mr. Rickenbrode has not missed a single home basketball game except while he was travelling outside the country. M Club members in the scene are Vic Cromer, Fred Maher, and Darrell Walker.

Cummings to Be Here For Third Engagement

Lucile Cummings, contralto, will make her third appearance before a Northwest Missouri State College audience when she sings at the College assembly at 10 a.m., Friday, February 10, in the auditorium, according to Dr. Sterling Surrey, chairman of the assemblies committee.

First appearing before the students and faculty of the college in 1952, Miss Cummings was so well received that she was asked to return two years later. Again response to her program was excellent, and it prompted the committee to ask Miss Cummings to appear here once more as one of the highlighting assemblies of the Golden Anniversary year.

Miss Cummings' program is varied to suit the musical tastes of almost any individual. It includes serious numbers by Bach and Beethoven and lighter folk tunes and semi-popular music.

Of particular interest to State College students is the fact that two of the College's faculty members, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sandford, will assist Miss Cummings with her program. The Sandfords, members of the Division of Music faculty, became acquainted with Miss Cummings on her two previous visits and have been in correspondence with her at intervals throughout the ensuing years.

Mrs. Sandford will accompany Miss Cummings on the piano throughout the program, and Mr. Sandford will play the viola obbligato to one group of numbers. Miss Cummings plans to arrive in Maryville a day or two early in order to rehearse with the Sandfords.

Seven times within recent months, Lucile Cummings has been guest star on NBC's Telephone Hour; and this season marked her New York Opera debut in the leading role of Ainneris in the New York City Center Opera Company's production of "Aida."

Library Receives 'Great Books' Set

Mr. James Johnson, College librarian, is now placing a set of books containing 54 volumes upon the shelves of the College library. This set of "Great Books of the Western World" was obtained through a selection committee of the American Library Association under a grant from the Old Dominion Foundation. The celebrated 54-volume work, including the unique idea-index of Syntopicon, was produced by Encyclopedia Britannica in collaboration with the University of Chicago.

Applications mailed out by the Selection Committee of the A.L.A. were sent to approximately 30,000 libraries in the United States. Mr. Johnson's application was one of the 1,600 letters meriting a set of books.

Mother of College Dean Dies in Pittsburg, Kan.

Dr. W. A. Brandenburg, dean of the College faculty, was called to Pittsburg, Kansas, Tuesday, January 24, because of the death of his mother, Mrs. William A. Brandenburg.

Dean Brandenburg had recently visited his mother who had continued to live in Pittsburg after the death in 1940 of her husband, Dr. William A. Brandenburg, Sr., president of the Kansas State Teachers College for many years.

Mrs. Brandenburg, who was 86 years old, had been in failing health for several months.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, January 26, at the First Christian Church in Pittsburg.

Opportunity Knocks . . .

"So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love," says Paul in the thirteenth chapter of his first letter to the church at Corinth. It is the finding of these three things—faith, hope, and love—that the Religious Emphasis committee has elected for us to study and discuss this week.

In connection with this study, the committee has brought to our campus three excellent resource leaders, Mrs. Burnet Easton, the Rev. Gerald Ecker, and Dr. Herbert White.

We have already heard Dr. White and the Rev. Gerald Ecker in Monday's and Tuesday's assemblies, and there remain but two chances to hear the keynote speeches by Mrs. Easton and Dr. White.

The remaining assemblies have been scheduled at nine o'clock so that students who may have had ten o'clock classes before will have an opportunity to attend.

We should feel extremely fortunate that the officials of a state-supported school have seen fit to allow time for a serious study of religious questions during the school week, and every student should make a point to attend at least some of the sessions.

Those who find that they cannot be present at one of the regular assemblies should try to attend an evening session with a campus organization. Most of these organizations are having open meetings during this week.

Pick up a Religious Emphasis Week program at the auditorium door and pick out a few meetings you can attend, now.

Is Courtesy Present?

Parking congestion seems to have been alleviated somewhat since many students have been observing the "no-parking" sign in the Union driveway. It's really too bad that students could not have quit parking in this area voluntarily without having the Student Senate and the College police hold clubs over their heads.

It's just a matter of common courtesy to leave this drive open for delivery and service trucks. The only persons permitted to park near the Union are full-time personnel who have reserved spots at the south end.

Courtesy and good manners in driving, in eating, in just walking down the hall—are virtues which should be present in all college students. Stop to think a moment before you block the Union drive, or crash the cafeteria line, or barge in the door of the Ad building ahead of someone.

A kind thought requires very little energy.

Degree Candidates . . .

The following people completed the requirements for graduation the first semester and are now candidates for degrees, according to the office of the Registrar.

Candidates for the B. S. in Education, Elementary, are Patricia J. Foley, Gwendolyn J. Grove, Hugh B. McFadin, Denzil G. McIntosh, Dolores J. Miller, Everett B. Pitts, Lena C. Morgan.

Jesse James Slept Here . . .

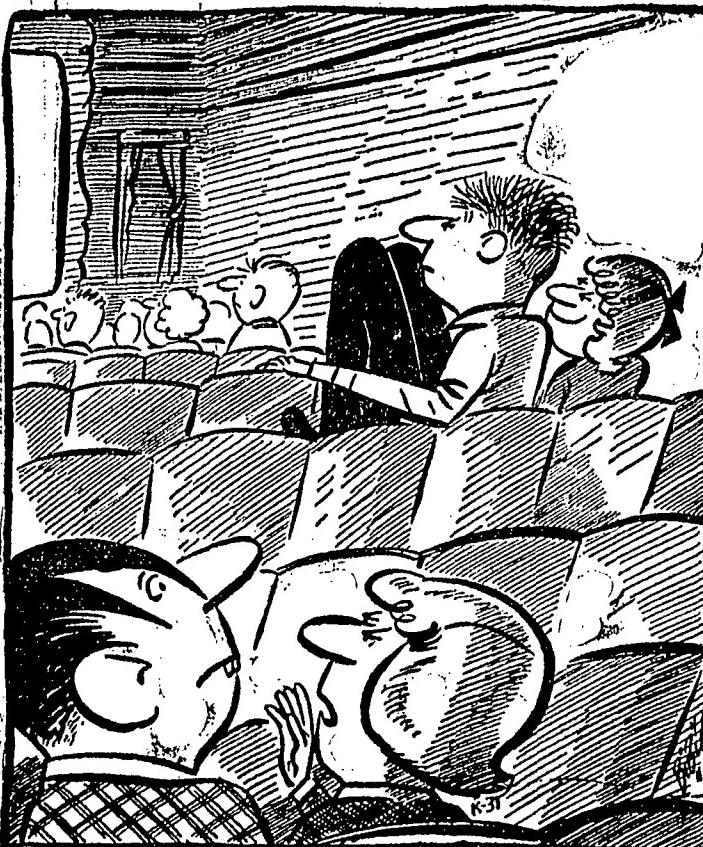

Although he was not a home economics major, the notorious Jesse James is believed to have stayed in the house which is now the Home Management house on the campus. Tradition has it that this outlaw took refuge in the house for a period of three weeks while he recovered from a wound.

The Home Management House, which once faced the east rather than the direction it now faces, is known to be one of the older buildings in Maryville, and it has the promise of many other colorful events in its history.

The Stroller . . .

Like a bad penny, and General MacArthur, the Stroller always returns; and here he again to provide you students with "gnus" "vues" from the campus of old NWMSU.

Well, "ye olde" first semester has finally ed away, much to the relief of students, instructors alike, and the foundling new who has begun its journey toward its May termination. Here's hoping that the collegiate fellas and gals fare better in their tussle for grades than they did last semester. Seems a shame only fifty students out of more than 1200 managed to come up with a 2.5 grade-point average.

Members of the Junior Class really took advantage of the confused state of mind in which the student finds himself as he goes through the registration line. They caught each member of their class as he reached the end of the line and extracted his class dues before he knew what was happening. So efficient was this process, that a number of students not belonging to the aforementioned class almost contributed to the cause.

"Old facefull," the third-floor water fountain is at it again. Its latest victim is Burl Walker who walked up to it the other day and received one of its delightfully refreshing showers. He admits, however, that it certainly is a good "waker-upper."

Speaking of water fountains, have you taken a good look at the new streamlined foot-pedal job on first floor? "Look, mama, no hands!"

The Stroller must have water on the brain because this paragraph is about another water fountain—the one that isn't there. About four months ago when the Stroller was taking a periodical walk along the fourth-floor halls, found the music majors all a-twitter over a new fountain that was being installed in the music penthouse. Recently, however, when he chanced to ascend into the upper regions again, his discovery was that the fountain had disappeared and in its place was a hole-in-the-wall. Maybe some man from Mars has been at work with his integrator.

New horizons in the advertising of candy sales have been reached by the Art Club. Recently they offered "dog-tested" goodies for sale. Rumor has it that the dog that was doing the "testing" may have belonged to some faculty member.

Ground hog day passed very quietly last week. The Stroller hears that Mr. Ground Hog heard about the status of his upstairs cousin the farm hog, and was afraid to show his face. Agriculture majors shouldn't get too worried however. Afterall, a farm is still a place where you can make a fortune—if you find uranium that is.

Today's quotable quote: "If you keep on passing the buck, some day you'll wonder why you have so few of them in your pocket."

Bearcats to Face Warrensburg And Springfield on Road Trip

Northwest Missouri State College Bearcats will be on the road this week-end with two games scheduled with the Warrensburg Mules and Springfield Bears. Both of these games are MIAA contests and are important for the 'Cats.

Springfield was defeated in a close contest here in early January. The Bears then went on to defeat the conference leader, Kirksville. Later Kirksville avenged this loss with a victory over the Bears. Cape has also won over Springfield. Kirksville is presently riding on top of the MIAA.

The Bearcats will play Warrensburg Friday night at Morrow Gymnasium. The Mules are sporting transfers who are looking good. Jim Toner is heading this list, being 6' 7" and excellent on the boards. This will be the first meeting of these two clubs. Warrensburg will return here with a game February 24th.

Recently the 'Cats have been handicapped with the absence of Bob Alcorn. Bob came down with the mumps shortly after the semester began. He is currently leading the Bearcats in scoring.

Leo Bangs filled in for Alcorn and did a creditable job. Leo made his first appearance in the Rolla game and topped the 'Cats' scoring with 17 points.

Saturday night, the 'Cats travel to Springfield.

Coach Bob Gregory has centered his starting line-up around Lex Creamer, who is second in scoring for the 'Cats, Mike Hutcheon, Weldon Dowden, Dana Sharp, and Alcorn.

Backing up the starting five have been Marvin Black, Merrill Nisely, Don Ecklund, Jon Becker, Ed Kavanaugh, and Bangs.

Emporia State Wins Over 'Cats, 87-70

Northwest Missouri Bearcats were defeated on January 30th by a hot team from Emporia, Kansas. Emporia State started hitting in the second half with 21 shots for 31 tries for 68 per cent to go on and win 87-70.

The Bearcats were leading 43-40 with five minutes gone in the second half. The victors were quick to retaliate and regained the lead for good within the next three minutes.

Floyd Quincey's fine shooting in the last half provided most of the Emporia surge. In all he scored ten field goals and four free throws, totaling 24 points. Lex Creamer, Bearcat guard, was high point man with 20 points for the 'Cats with Merrill Nisely being second high with 12 points.

Bob Alcorn was missed in this games and also the games with Rolla and Kirksville.

Also in games being played after the semester began were the Washburn Ichabods, defeating the 'Cats for the second time, 81-57. Dana Sharp was high point man with 12 for this non-conference game.

Intramural Stars To Play Bearcat Reserve Team

This year will be a little different than years past in the intramurals for the picking of the All-Stars. Each organization will pick the best men from their four teams to make up one team. This makes four teams who will play in a tournament and then a second All-Star team will be picked from this tournament. The All-Tourney team will play the College "B" team later. The first tournament will start today and finish tomorrow.
